

MACEDONIAN FOLK DANCING

with music by

GORAN & ADRIJANA ALACHKI

on

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 12, 2007, 8 - 10:30 PM

at the

FIRST PARISH OF WATERTOWN CHURCH (U.U.) LOWER HALL
35 CHURCH STREET AT SUMMER STREET
WATERTOWN SQUARE, MASSACHUSETTS

The church is two blocks from the #71 bus route (Harvard Square to Watertown Square via Mount Auburn Street).
For detailed directions, see www.facone.org > Thursday dance > First Parish of Watertown Church.
Parking is available in the lot to the left of the church behind Watertown Savings Bank, and on the streets nearby.

ADMISSION $ 7

Acclaimed master accordionist and composer Goran Alachki has been designated a "National Living Treasure" by the Macedonian Ministry of Culture. His wife, Adrijana, an award-winning vocalist and recording artist, is one of the most renowned singers in Macedonia. Please join us for this great evening of folk music and dancing as we welcome Goran and Adrijana on their second visit to Boston from Skopje, Republic of Macedonia!

Goran and Adrijana will also be available for private voice and accordion lessons. Contact David Golber at dgolber@aol.com, cell 781-396-2323, home 617-661-3670.

For updated information, see www.people.brandeis.edu/~gessel/tuesday