

The Folk Arts Center of New England presents

Italian Folk Dance Workshops

with Roberto Bagnoli

Saturday, November 17, 2007

followed by an international folk dance party with special guest Yves Moreau and music by The Pinewoods Band

“Roberto Bagnoli is a fine teacher with a relaxed personality who communicates very well in Italian, English and French. Folk dancers hear ‘Italy’ and think, oh... just tarantellas and couple dances... Wrong! There are also exciting circle and line dances, different styles of music, and many easy ‘party’ dances as well. Some of those dances have similarities with French, Spanish, and Portuguese dances, and the Sardinian ones almost look Balkan...” — Yves Moreau

Two workshops: 1-2:45 pm & 3-4:45 pm • Culture Corner 5:15-6:15 pm
Italian supper 6:30-7:30 pm • Workshop review & dance party 8-11 pm

ADMISSION: Each workshop $15 • FAC members $12 • students $10 Culture Corner (lecture) $10 • FAC members $7 • students $5

Workshop review & folk dance party $15 • FAC members $12 • students $10

Workshops, Culture Corner & workshop review/party $50 • FAC members $40 • students $30 plus Italian supper (antipasto, lasagna, salad, dessert) $10

All events are held at the

Payson Park Congregational Church parish hall
365 Belmont Street, Belmont, Massachusetts

A native of Rome, Roberto Bagnoli now lives in Northern Italy. He has been a dancer and choreographer with Terra di Danza, and is the founder and director of Folk Atelier Reggio Emilia, dedicated to developing and preserving folk dance heritage. Roberto has conducted workshops and seminars throughout Europe.

He has been invited to teach Italian folk dance at Stockton Folk Dance Camp in California in 2008. FAC is pleased to introduce Roberto to the United States.
