

The Folk Arts Center of New England presents a

Hungarian Weekend

featuring dance workshops with

Éva Mária Kish

and táncház music by

Trei Arcusi

(Miamon Miller, Becky Ashenden, & Chuck Corman)

at the

Payson Park Church Parish Hall

365 Belmont Street, Belmont, Massachusetts

Éva Mária Kish returns to Boston for a weekend teaching short choreographed dances, updates to classic Hungarian dances, and more involved improvisatory táncház material:

Friday, November 7, 2008

8–10 pm Workshop in basic recreational Hungarian dances

Saturday, November 8, 2008

1–2:45 pm Workshop in dances from the Szilagysagi region of Transylvania

3–4:45 pm Workshop in dances from the Gyimes region of Transylvania

5:15–6:15 pm “Culture Corner” lecture with Éva

6:30–7:30 pm Hungarian supper

8–11 pm Workshop review and dance party with music by Trei Arcusi

ADMISSION: Each workshop $ 15, FAC members $ 12, students $ 10

Culture Corner (lecture) $ 10, FAC members $ 7, students $ 5

Workshop review & folk dance party $ 17, FAC members $ 15, students $ 12

All Saturday events (not including supper) $ 52, FAC members $ 40, students $ 32

plus the Hungarian supper $ 10

---

www.facone.org • 781-662-7475 • fac@facone.org

---